

My Story from the Past

Use the checklist below to help you research and present a story from the past.

Research

- The story I chose is about my past or my community's past.
- The story I chose has suspense, conflict, humour, or a moral.
- The story I chose will be interesting to my audience.

Practise

- You used your voice effectively to present the story.
- You used technology effectively to present the story.
- You used media texts effectively (storyboard) to present the story.
- You presented the story in a way that made it easy to understand and follow.
- You used gestures and facial expressions to add interest to the story.
- You shared background information about your story.