

Chapter 1 Assessment of Learning #1

Choose an artifact from this chapter and explain its role in helping us learn about the past. Identify how archeologists and historians might use the artifacts to piece together what life was like or how a particular people lived in the past. Identify other types of evidence that archeologists and historians might use to help them gain a better understanding of the artifacts.
